Rim Trail

The Rim Trail is an easy to moderate hike that follows the edge of Bryce Canyon, providing panoramic views of its vast expanse. Along the way, you will encounter iconic formations such as Thor's Hammer, the Silent City, and the Boat Mesa.

Navajo Loop Trail

For a more challenging hike, the Navajo Loop Trail is a must-do. This loop trail descends into the canyon, offering up-close encounters with towering hoodoos and breathtaking views of the park's geological features.

Queen's Garden Trail

The Queen's Garden Trail provides an intimate experience in a secluded part of Bryce Canyon. This trail leads you through a narrow canyon with stunning views of delicate hoodoos and lush vegetation.

Unveiling Bryce Canyon's Hoodoos

Ameritrekking Adventures not only provides guided hikes but also offers a fascinating interpretation of Bryce Canyon's unique geology. You will learn about the processes that have shaped this magnificent landscape over millions of years, creating the iconic hoodoos that are its hallmark feature.

These hoodoos, formed by the erosion of soft rock layers capped by harder rock layers, are a testament to the relentless power of nature. You will marvel at their intricate shapes and vibrant colors, understanding the complex interplay of time, water, and wind that has given birth to this geological masterpiece.

Stargazing in the Dark Sky Reserve

In addition to its breathtaking daytime landscapes, Bryce Canyon is also renowned for its exceptional stargazing. Designated as an International Dark Sky Reserve, the park offers ideal conditions for observing celestial wonders with minimal light pollution.

Ameritrekking Adventures provides guided stargazing tours that will transport you to a universe of twinkling stars and distant galaxies. You will learn about the constellations, planets, and nebulae visible in the night sky, connecting with the vastness and mystery of the cosmos.

Immersive Wildlife Encounters

Bryce Canyon is home to a diverse array of wildlife, including mule deer, coyotes, and various bird species. On your guided hikes, you will have ample opportunities to observe these animals in their natural habitat.

Ameritrekking Adventures guides are knowledgeable about wildlife behavior and can help you identify animal tracks, calls, and sightings. With their expertise, you will gain a deeper appreciation for the interconnectedness of the park's ecosystem.
