The Mysterious

Randolph Street Gallery

Tucked away in a former industrial warehouse, Randolph Street Gallery is a hidden gem in Chicago's West Loop. This unique art space showcases thought-provoking and experimental exhibitions that challenge the boundaries of contemporary art. With its raw, industrial aesthetic and eclectic collection, Randolph Street Gallery offers a glimpse into Chicago's vibrant and unconventional art scene.

Chicago Cultural Center

Chicago Cultural Center

Housed in a stunning Beaux-Arts building, the Chicago Cultural Center is a hidden architectural gem. This free-admission venue offers a diverse range of exhibitions, performances, and events that celebrate Chicago's rich cultural heritage. From its grand Tiffany dome to its intricate mosaics, the Chicago Cultural Center is a feast for the senses and a must-see for anyone seeking a glimpse of Chicago's hidden beauty.

The Macabre

Bridgeport Art Center

In the heart of Chicago's Bridgeport neighborhood lies the Bridgeport Art Center, a former funeral home transformed into a vibrant art space. This unique venue hosts exhibitions, performances, and workshops that explore the intersection of art and mortality. With its macabre history and edgy programming, the Bridgeport Art Center offers an unsettling yet thought-provoking experience.

Hourglass Escape Rooms

Hourglass Escape Rooms

For those seeking a thrilling and macabre adventure, Hourglass Escape Rooms offers immersive escape room experiences inspired by Chicago's dark history. With themes ranging from serial killers to haunted asylums, Hourglass Escape Rooms will test your wits and push your limits. Prepare to delve into a world of mystery, suspense, and the unknown.

The Ghostly Glamorous

The Green Mill Cocktail Lounge

Step into a bygone era at The Green Mill Cocktail Lounge, a historic speakeasy that has played host to countless legendary musicians and gangsters. With its dimly lit interior, vintage decor, and live jazz performances, The Green Mill offers a glimpse into Chicago's glamorous and notorious past. Rumor has it that the ghost of jazz legend Al Capone still haunts the premises, making for an unforgettable and slightly spooky experience.

The Drake Hotel

The Drake Hotel

Indulge in the opulence and mystery of The Drake Hotel, a landmark hotel that has welcomed countless celebrities and dignitaries throughout its storied history. While the hotel offers luxurious amenities and stunning views of Lake Michigan, it also carries a haunted reputation. Guests have reported encounters with a friendly ghost named "The Lady in Red" and other disembodied spirits that linger in the grand halls.

Chicago's hidden sites of the mysterious, macabre, and ghostly glamorous offer a unique and captivating glimpse into the city's untold stories. From otherworldly art galleries to haunted speakeasies, these off-the-beaten-path attractions will ignite your curiosity, challenge your perceptions, and leave you with lasting memories. Whether you seek the thrill of the unknown, the allure of the macabre, or the glamour of the past, Chicago's hidden gems promise an unforgettable adventure.
